

 De-Monopoly DiscoTech 101 Want to help our community reduce dependency on big tech products?	 https://resisttechmonopolies.online/ This zine was created by Resist Tech Monopolies. We are a Seattle-based collective that believes technology can empower the people who build and use it, not just line the pockets of billionaires. See our website below to find out more about us!	 of scan QR code below and take-home checklist (scan QR code below for bingo game template) Optional: handout including bingo game and take-home checklist Optional: RSVP form Optional: survey	space elpqrssssccce un eavresheet Create a flyer and share it with community members and like-minded organizations Prepare station materials (banners, 'snoutpunch' demos, 'handout' software, etc.) Gather disco-themed decorations and a speaker for playing disco music Host your event!
What's a De-Monopoly DiscoTech? "DiscoTech" was coined by Detroit Community Networks and is short for "Discovering Technology" A De-Monopoly DiscoTech involves sharing FLOSS (Free Libre Open-Source Software) and big tech alternatives in a science-fair style	What will I find at a De-Monopoly DiscoTech? A space to learn from each other A space to work on switching over to new technologies and receive support Disco-themed (music, decorations, etc.)	Station Ideas Email / Calendar / Drive (Proton, NextCloud, etc.) Maps / Navigation (OpenStreetMap, Magic Earth, etc.) Browsers / Search Engines (Startpage, DuckDuckGo, LibreWolf, Kagi, etc.) Messaging (Signal, Matrix, etc.) Social Media (Mastodon, Social Co-op, etc.) Photos (Proton, Immich, Ente, etc.) Operating Systems (Linux)	Station Ideas Device Privacy Settings Disabling AI Features Self-Hosting Welcome Station Work Space with Tech Support Attendee Interviews * * ask questions such as "What Big Tech products are you struggling to move away from?" and "What FLOSS technologies do you know of that we didn't include in our stations today?"